2-0 in Yankee Stadium New Era Pinstripe Bowl

2010 2012

13 games for the Orange football program in MetLife Stadium in the next 25 years.

3 men's lacrosse Big City Classic titles at MetLife Stadium.

1st The Orange played in the FIRST sporting event held at MetLife Stadium.

92 wins for the Orange men's basketball team in 166 games at Madison Square Garden.

226 minutes played in Syracuse's SIX overtime thriller against Connecticut in 2009 at Madison Square Garden.

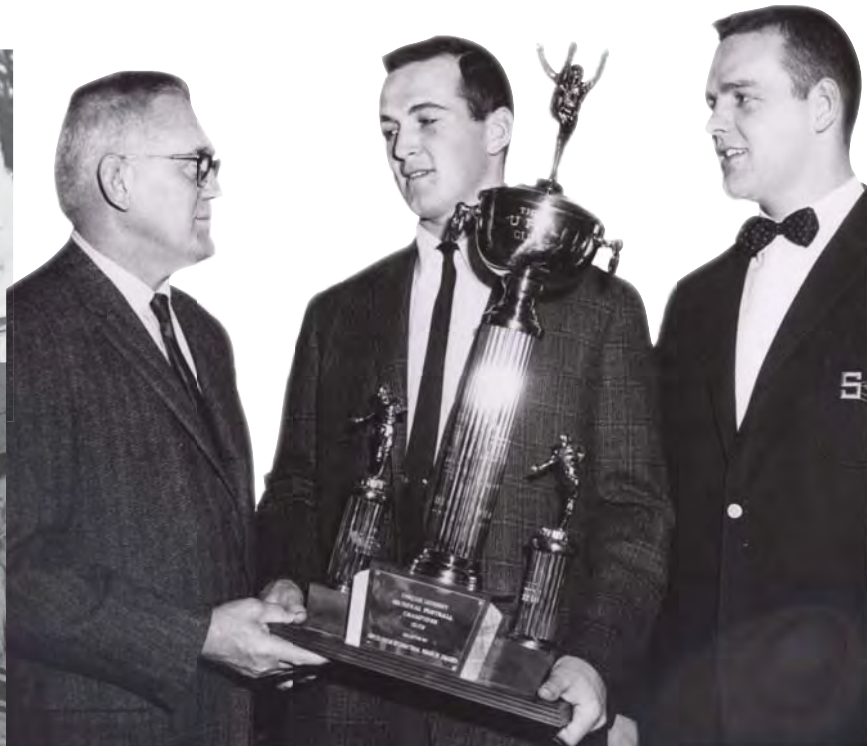
The only BCS school in the Empire State, Syracuse University is New York's College Team. Victories in the 2010 and 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowls in Yankee Stadium and overwhelming success for the men's basketball team in Madison Square Garden underscore Syracuse's prominence in the nation's biggest city, which is home to Syracuse University's largest alumni base.

The Orange hue extends into New Jersey where MetLife Stadium has played host to 11-time national champion Syracuse men's lacrosse contests and will be home to the football Orange for multiple games in the next two decades, including the 2013 New York's College Classic against Penn State on August 31.

The Orange brand is prominent on the airwaves across New York State via the Syracuse IMG Network, including game and coaches show broadcasts, and in the Big Apple, with games televised on the MSG and YES Networks. Syracuse is also woven into everyday life in New York City with signage on the ABC ribbon board, in Yankee Stadium and on New York City taxi tops, and in the Orange Box at the U.S. Tennis Open.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Undefeated, untied, the 1959 Orange capped off an 11-0 season with a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse dominated its foes both offensively and defensively under the direction of National Coach of the Year Ben Schwartzwalder. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 regular-season games. Running back Ernie Davis led the way for the Orange offense, which averaged 451 yards per game. Guard Roger Davis, who was selected seventh overall by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft, end Fred Mautino and tackle Robert Yates earned All-America honors.



ORANGE IN THE NFL

The Syracuse Way

With more than 300 alums making their marks in professional football, the National Football League has an Orange tint to it. Many Orange all-time greats continued their success in the NFL following their Syracuse careers. Running back Jim Brown was the 1957 NFL Rookie of the Year and a four-time NFL Player of the Year. Syracuse has had 24 All-AFC Team honorees and 10 All-NFL Team honorees, while seven Orange alums have earned All-Rookie team honors, including Dwight Freeney, a six-time Pro Bowl selection and 2006 Super Bowl champion.

The Orange has also had a first-round pick in back-to-back years of the NFL Draft. In 2012, defensive end Chandler Jones was the 21st overall selection by the New England Patriots and in 2013 offensive tackle Justin Pugh was selected by the New York Giants with the 19th pick. In addition, in 2013 quarterback Ryan Nassib was selected by the Giants in the fourth round (110th overall) and safety Shamarko Thomas was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the fourth round (111th overall).

ERNIE DAVIS: 1961 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

In 1961, the Civil Rights Act was three years from becoming a reality. It would be four years until voting rights of all Americans were protected by federal law. But an unassuming sports hero was about to play an important, yet unintentional, role in the burgeoning civil rights movement. On December 6, 1961, Syracuse University running back Ernest R. Davis was awarded the Heisman Trophy. It was the first time in history that an African-American was honored as the best college football player in the country, even though blacks had participated in the game since the late 1800s.

As a sophomore, Davis rushed for a team-high 686 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to power Coach Ben Schwartzwalder's 1959 Orange to a 10-0 regular-season record, the nation's No. 1 ranking and a Cotton Bowl showdown with No. 2-ranked Texas. With the collective eyes of the college football world focused on Dallas, Texas, Davis captured MVP honors, scoring two touchdowns – one on an 87-yard halfback option pass from captain Ger Schwedes -- and setting up a third to spark a 23-14 Orange triumph.

In 1960, Davis rushed for a team-high 877 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to earn All-America accolades. Davis led SU again in 1961, rushing for a team-best 823 yards and scoring 15 touchdowns. In the Liberty Bowl, he rushed for 140 yards on 30 carries and scored SU's first touchdown as the Orange rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to nip Miami, 15-14.

A unanimous selection for his second All-America honor, Davis was then honored as the 1961 Heisman Trophy winner.

President John F. Kennedy sent the following telegram to Davis in 1963 after a celebration of Davis' achievements in Elmira, New York:

> "Seldom has an athlete been more deserving of such a tribute. Your high standards of performance on the field and off the field reflect the finest qualities of competition, sportsmanship and citizenship. The nation has bestowed upon you its highest awards for your athletic achievements. It's a privilege for me to address you tonight as an outstanding American, and as a worthy example of our youth. I salute you."

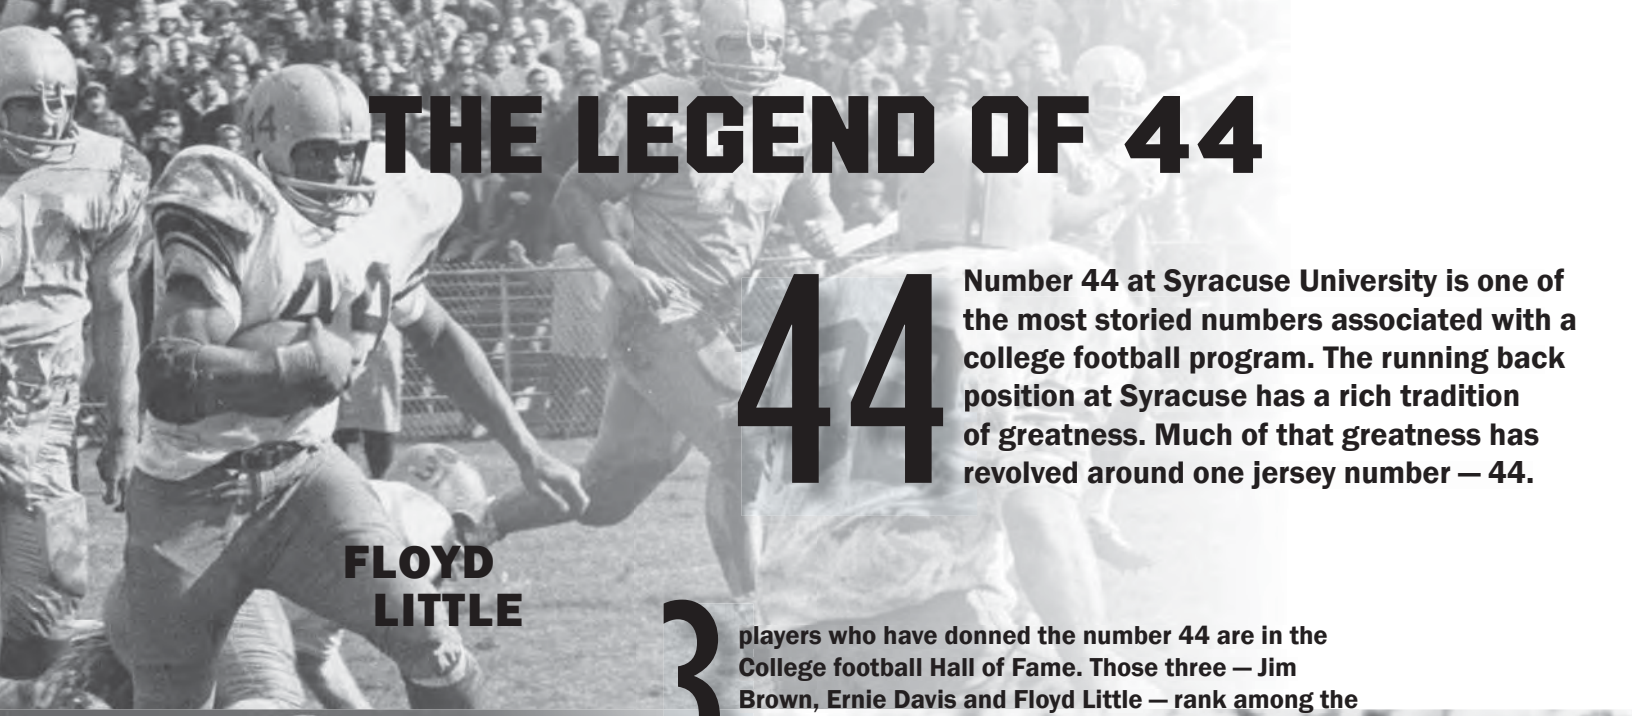
Hoping to team the talented Davis with his SU backfield predecessor and NFL rushing king Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell traded for the NFL draft rights to Davis and then selected him with the first overall selection in the annual draft. But before the former Orange stars could ever suit up together, Davis contracted leukemia and died on May 18, 1963. He was 23.

In the fall of 1979, Davis, who had taken the greatness of SU's No. 44 from Jim Brown and passed it on to Floyd Little, was a posthumous inductee into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. In 2008, 'The Express,' a motion picture about Davis, premiered in downtown Syracuse. Syracuse University has honored Davis in many ways, including with the retirement of his #44, erecting a statue of him on the University Quad, constructing Ernie Davis Hall, and celebrating the 50th anniversary of his historic accomplishment with an event in the New York Historical Society Museum in New York City in 2011.

THE LEGEND OF 44

44 Number 44 at Syracuse University is one of the most storied numbers associated with a college football program. The running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — 44.



3 players who have donned the number 44 are in the College football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

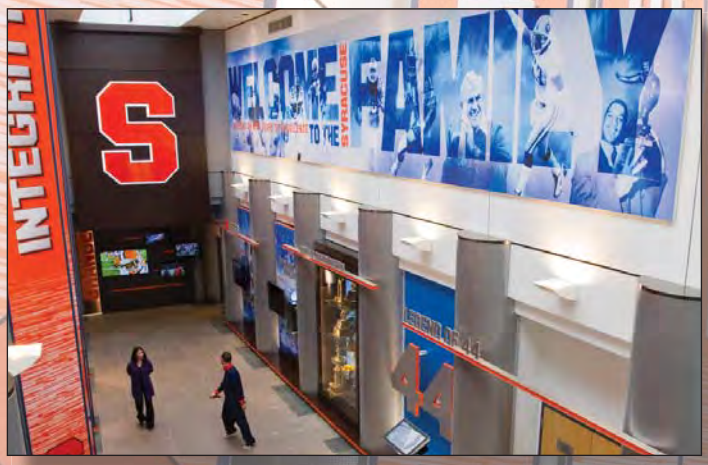
FOOTBALL FACILITY

The Iocolano-Petty Football Wing embodies the long and storied tradition of the Orange Football program. The home to the Orange features a Carrier Dome theater, state-of-the art player lounge, locker room and cafeteria, as well as displays honoring all of the Syracuse legends.



"The success stories are here – the National Championship trophy, the Heisman Trophy, the Bowl games, and the academic and post-football success. That embodies what this program is all about. Our student-athletes are leaving here with a degree from an outstanding academic institution with a chance to play in the National Football League and are succeeding in life after football."

– Head Coach Scott Shafer

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

From the Carrier Dome to the state-of-the-art strength training facility to the accommodations in the newly-renovated Iocolano-Petty Football Wing, Syracuse student-athletes have top-notch facilities for competition, preparation and for academic achievement. Syracuse will begin construction on a state-of-the-art, 87,000 square-foot indoor practice facility that will provide the Orange football program with an innovative and modern practice environment.

Student-athletes have daily access to the side-by-side FieldTurf Schwartzwalder-Katz practice fields, the Manley Field House indoor practice facility, and the Stevenson Educational Center.

The largest structure of its kind on any college campus in the country, the Carrier Dome is home to Ernie Davis Legends Field and Syracuse's nationally-recognized football, basketball and lacrosse programs.

Since 2005, athletics facilities have expanded and received upgrades, including:

- The installation of a 360-degree ribbon display and multiple LED video boards in the Carrier Dome in 2012 (see top right)
- The construction of the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center
- The 2012 renovation of the Iocolano-Petty Football Complex

The educational center is involved in additional activities directed toward enhancing academic performance. Orientation programs for incoming student-athletes are held at the beginning of the first semester in order to aid in the transition. Career planning programs have been developed to assist those who are undecided on their major course of study. As student-athletes approach the end of their college careers, programs coordinated by the Stevenson Educational Center team help them enter the work force or explore graduate school opportunities.

A UNIQUE PRESEASON EXPERIENCE

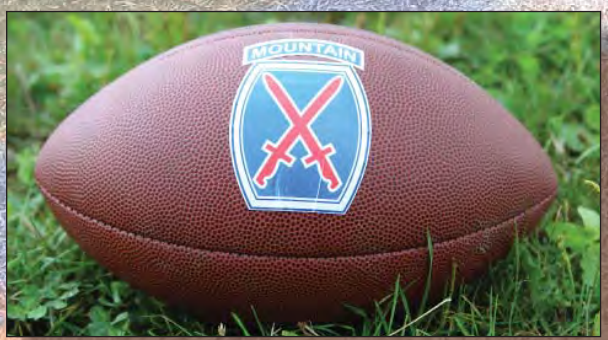
During preseason camp the Orange travel to Fort Drum to learn from one of the largest teams in the world – the United States Army. Syracuse visits the 10th Mountain Division to develop their leadership skills in sessions with soldiers and strengthen team chemistry, in addition to preseason camp workouts.

While on Post, the Orange hold meetings in an Army battalion headquarters, eat in an Army dining facility and sleep in actual soldier barracks. In addition to their football development, student-athletes and coaches participate in various military activities, including Army physical training, small unit leadership seminars and a paintball tournament. The week culminates with a scrimmage played before the 10th Mountain Division Soldiers and their families.

Throughout the season the Orange honors the 10th Mountain Division by displaying the division's flag as it takes the field.

"Being at Fort Drum for a few days, I'm shocked with how much I've learned. I never really understood how much leadership and teamwork are involved in the Army. All of those little things that they talk about and they preach, I always find myself thinking about how I can work that into the football team. I think it will help our team because we are learning from the best team in the world."

– Ryan Nassib, Quarterback



THIS IS SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Since its founding in 1870, Syracuse University has been the embodiment of Scholarship in Action — education that transcends traditional boundaries through a combination of innovative thinking, daring choices and entrepreneurial attitude. The iconic campus is nestled amongst the rolling hills of Central New York – itself a crucible of historic change and progress.

Building on that foundation, SU continues to create opportunities for students and faculty to push limits, build pathways, and make connections that lead to new discoveries and transformational change.

Every day, Syracuse University is propelled by the bold idea of Scholarship in Action –education that is not static or for its own sake, but the living expression of insights that incite change – one person at a time being moved to change lives, neighborhoods, and the world. Whether standing up for 9,600 veterans from World War II by opening its doors to them in 1946 when not all universities were willing to admit them under the G.I. Bill of Rights or individuals sacrificing what they truly loved for a greater cause in the Syracuse Eight, a group of football student-athletes who walked away from their sport to make a statement about fairness and equality, Syracuse University has its outstretched arms ready for an embrace.

ORANGE ALUMNI

Syracuse University alumni excel in a wide variety of professions – from acting to zoology and everything in between. Some are celebrated athletes, award-winning sportscasters, distinguished U.S. Senators or Vice President of the United States. Others may not be as well known, but are equally noteworthy for their accomplishments and contributions to society.

CITY OF SYRACUSE

Located in the heart of New York State, the City of Syracuse and its nearby environments offer a blend of city life and scenic countryside escapes. Among its many attractions, the city hosts a symphony, an opera company, museums, art houses, and professional theater. Historic Armory Square in downtown Syracuse is filled with restaurants, pubs, and boutique hotel and shopping opportunities, along with the hands on Milton J. Rubenstein Museum of Science & Technology. To experience some of the unique sites the city has to offer, visitors can travel the Connective Corridor, a three-mile developing urban design project linking Syracuse University with the city's cultural attractions.

Beyond the city, the area features abundant county and regional parks. The Rosamond Gifford Zoo, Beaver Lake Nature Center, Onondaga Lake Park, and Baltimore Woods Nature Preserve offer plentiful recreation and entertainment opportunities.

Syracuse is also home to Destiny USA - a 2.4 million square-foot destination shopping complex. Destiny USA recently underwent a 850,000 square-foot expansion that combines full-priced and value retail, fine dining and entertainment venues. It is the sixth-largest shopping center in the country featuring over 260 tenants.

Residents and visitors enjoy the region's four seasons, which allow for various outdoor sports, including cross-country and downhill skiing, snowmobiling, biking, fishing, hiking, and canoeing. In addition, more than 40 golf courses are located throughout the greater Syracuse area. For the sports enthusiasts, Syracuse is also home to the Syracuse Chiefs, the AAA affiliate for the Washington Nationals, and Syracuse Crunch AHL Hockey.

A yearly end-of-summer celebration with exhibitions, food, and entertainment, the Great New York State Fair draws hundreds of thousands of visitors every year. The area also hosts many other festivals, including the Jamesville Balloon Fest, Syracuse Jazz Fest, and the Great American Antique Fest.

In recognition of the area's many assets, Forbes magazine in June 2010 listed Syracuse in its top 10 ranking of "America's Best Places to Raise a Family."

Chancellor and President

Nancy Cantor is a distinguished higher education leader who is helping forge a new understanding of the role of universities in society. As Chancellor and President of Syracuse University, she spearheads pursuit of its vision, Scholarship in Action, a view of the university not as a traditional "ivory tower," but as a public good, an anchor institution that collaborates with partners from all sectors of the economy to more effectively serve the needs of society.

Under Cantor's leadership, Syracuse University has built on its historical strengths, pursuing cross-sector collaborations in the City of Syracuse that simultaneously enrich scholarship and education, spurring transformation of this older industrial city. Meanwhile, these local engagements in key areas-such as environmental sustainability; art, technology, and design; neighborhood and cultural entrepreneurship; and urban school reform-resonate nationally and globally, demonstrating the inter-connectedness of the pressing issues of our world.

The breadth, depth, and success of these efforts earned SU the distinction of being among the first institutions to earn the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching's classification as a university committed to Community Engagement and annual distinction on the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll. They also earned Chancellor Cantor the 2008 Carnegie Corporation Academic Leadership Award.

Chancellor Cantor lectures and writes extensively on the role of universities as anchor institutions in their communities, along with other crucial issues in higher education such as rewarding public scholarship, sustainability, liberal education and the creative campus, the status of women in the academy, and racial justice and diversity. Her thought is informed by extensive leadership experience at all levels within public and private universities. Among the ways she brings these combined experiences and domains of expertise to bear on her work are as co-chair of the American Commonwealth Partnership's Presidents Council, a member of the Steering Committee of the Anchor Institutions Task Force, and co-chair of the Central New York Regional Economic Development Council, a post to which she was appointed by New York Governor Andrew Cuomo.

Prior to her appointment at Syracuse, Chancellor Cantor served as chancellor of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign; provost and executive vice president for academic affairs at the University of Michigan, prior to which she had been dean of its Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies and vice provost for academic affairs; she also was professor of psychology and senior research scientist at the Institute for Social Research at Michigan. Previously, she had been chair of the department of psychology at Princeton University.

While at Michigan, she was closely involved in the university's defense of affirmative action in the cases Grutter and Gratz, decided by the Supreme Court in 2003. A leading voice on inclusion, diversity, and full participation, she speaks and writes frequently on these issues, is Principal Investigator on a National Science Foundation ADVANCE Institutional Transformation grant, and has served on national bodies including The Century Foundation Task Force on Preventing Community Colleges from Becoming Separate and Unequal, the National Research Council Advisory Committee for the Office of Scientific and Engineering Personnel and as co-chair of its Committee on Women in Science and Engineering, the Congressional Commission on Military Training and Gender Related Issues, and the Steering Committee of the Ford Foundation project Building Knowledge for Social Justice.

In her role as a social psychologist, Chancellor Cantor is recognized for her scholarly contributions to the understanding of how individuals perceive and think about their social worlds, pursue personal goals, and how they regulate their behavior to adapt to life's most challenging social environments.

An author of numerous books, chapters, and scientific journal articles, Chancellor Cantor holds an A.B. from Sarah Lawrence College and a Ph.D. in Psychology from Stanford University. Her academic work has been supported by the National Science Foundation, Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, Ewing Marion Kaufmann Foundation, and Carnegie Corporation of New York, among many others.

She is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a member of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences. Among the boards of which Cantor is a member are the American Institutes for Research, the New York Academy of Sciences, the UC Davis Board of Advisers, and the Say Yes to Education Foundation. She is also past chair of the board of directors of the American Association for Higher Education, the American Council on Education, and a former trustee of Sarah Lawrence College, the Paul Taylor Dance Company, and The Future of Minority Studies. She is a past board member of the National Academies Board on Higher Education and the Workforce, National Academies Roundtable for Science, Technology and Sustainability, Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences, American Psychological Society, and the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation. In addition, she was national co-chair of Imagining America's Tenure Team Initiative.

Among the awards that Cantor has received are the Distinguished Scientific Award for an Early Career Contribution to Psychology from the American Psychological Association, the Woman of Achievement Award from the Anti-Defamation League, the Making a Difference for Women Award from the National Council for Research on Women, the Reginald Wilson Diversity Leadership Award from the American Council on Education, and the Frank W. Hale, Jr. Diversity Leadership Award from the National Association of Diversity Officers in Higher Education.

"The athletics program – which everybody is really proud of – contributes to the life of the institution, the economic well-being of Syracuse, and the overall quality of life. We're partners with athletics, just as we are with our artistic and cultural assets, and our major academic programs. We need to always think about this partnership as a dynamic, evolving, and complicated process."

– DR. NANCY CANTOR, CHANCELLOR & PRESIDENT

Director of Athletics

His vision to ensure that Syracuse is consistently recognized as one of the great athletics institutions in the country and to produce the world's future leaders through championship-caliber sports experiences drives Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross. His mission for Syracuse Athletics is to compete and perform at the highest level in everything – on the playing field, in the classroom, and in the community, in an effort to graduate student-athletes who will make a positive impact on society. The principles in which he believes include winning championships, graduating all of the student-athletes, maintaining compliance with all NCAA rules, and being fiscally sound and efficient.

A veteran athletics administrator, Gross has led Syracuse Athletics to historic levels on the field and off. Gross stablized the future of the Orange athletics program by leading the school's move to the Atlantic Coast Conference.

"Daryl has fostered a culture of excellence across the board in SU Athletics," said SU Chancellor Nancy Cantor. "Building on a foundation of high expectations for our student-athletes' academic and community engagement, he has constructed a coaching staff that is producing unprecedented success, including record-setting performances by so many of our athletes, teams, and our athletics program as a whole. That carries over into the strong relationships he has cultivated with supporters of SU Athletics who have responded with exceptional generosity, in addition to their undying support for the Orange."

On the field, Syracuse had its best finish in school history in the 2013 NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup, finishing in the top 40 for the first time ever. In addition, the men's programs finished tied for ninth in the Capital One Cup and the women's programs placed in the top 25. The accomplishment is part of a larger story where Syracuse had made a steady climb in competitive excellence with the last six years being part of the top nine overall performances in school history. A program-best 10 Orange teams represented SU in the post-season in 2012-13. His insistence and emphasis on having the best coaching leadership in the world has produced arguably the greatest assembly of head coaches in the country, evidenced by the fact that 10 Orange head coaches have earned Coach of the Year honors, including a school-record six in 2010-11.

Entering his ninth year at Syracuse, Gross has put his imprint on the program, hiring nationally-recognized, elite head coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, women's tennis, field hockey, women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, women's ice hockey, women's rowing, volleyball, and cross country and track & field, adding them to a fraternity that already includes national championship winners Jim Boeheim (men's basketball) and John Desko (men's lacrosse). In 2008-09, Gross added women's ice hockey, and during its brief history head coach Paul Flanagan's team has been ranked in the top 10 nationally.

Success is becoming the norm for Orange teams.

- The 2012-13 men's basketball team, under the direction of Hall of Fame coach Jim Boeheim, advanced to the Final Four.
- Men's lacrosse coach John Desko led his squad to the National Championship game for the eighth time in his 15-year tenure.
- Women's lacrosse coach Gary Gait took his 2013 squad to the Final Four for the fourth time in the last five years.
- Men's soccer coach Ian McIntyre directed the 2013 Orange to NCAA Sweet 16 and the 17th spot in the final rankings.
- Field hockey coach Ange Bradley led the Orange to its fifth consecutive NCAA tournament and second Final Four after winning its third-straight Championship, and fourth in the last five years, in 2013.
- Cross country coach Chris Fox led the 2013 Orange men to the NCAA Championship for the third year in a row.
- Two of Fox's track & field student-athletes – Donald Pollitt and Lauren Penney – earned All-America honors for their performances at the 2013 NCAA Outdoor Championship.
- Women's basketball coach Quentin Hillsman guided his team to the NCAA Tournament, marking the program's sixth consecutive postseason appearance.
- The Orange football team won the program's second New Era Pinstripe Bowl Championship in three years.
- Third-year women's rowing coach Justin Moore led the team to the 19th spot in the national rankings, marking the second year in a row that SU was nationally ranked after a seven year drought.

Gross has increased Athletics' revenues to record levels by increasing donor giving to its highest amount in history, significantly increasing corporate sponsorships, and creating multiple new line item revenues. The department led campus unit in the University's 'Campaign for Syracuse', a $1 billion five-year fundraising endeavor. Gross has led a capital campaign, which has seen the construction of multiple facilities, including the Indoor Practice Center project and a new track & field facility in 2013-14, the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center, the Manley Hall of Champions, the renovation of the football wing, the installation of 360-degree ribbon display and multiple LED video boards in the Carrier Dome, the conversion of Manley Field House to an indoor practice facility, the re-surfacing of football practice fields, the naming of the Carrier Dome field as 'Ernie Davis Legends Field,' a weight room, a lacrosse practice field, a field hockey field, an ice hockey training facility and locker room complex, a new Dome field for football and lacrosse, a multi-media studio for Orange All Access, upgraded Dome amenities, new suites and floor seats, and improvements to many other facilities.

Branding the Orange

As the lone BCS University in the state of New York, Gross continues to brand Syracuse University Athletics as New York's College Team. SU Athletics continues to have events all over the Empire State and in the largest metropolitan area of the nation. In addition to basketball games at Madison Square Garden, football and lacrosse will play multiple games at MetLife Stadium, including the 2012 and 2013 New York's College Classic. An Orange presence at the U.S. Open tennis tournament and "Orange is in The Apple" celebrations are regular events in the NYC area. The football team added to the prominence of the Orange in NYC by winning the 2010 and 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowl championships.

Marketing initiatives include SU Athletics' signage in Yankee Stadium, taxi tops in Manhattan, as well as the NY logo on the back of the football helmets. The Athletics website, SUAthletics.com, is a leader nationally in design and multi-media content. Gross enhanced the 'Cuse Cares Program for student-athletes to engage and make an impact on the community. Student-athletes have won the Chancellor's Award for Community Service in 14 of the last 16 years. Syracuse student-athletes continue to graduate at a high level and have received prestigious academic awards that include one Rhodes Scholar, one National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, 15 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, and one finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year Award since 2005. In 2007, Gross initiated the 'Cuse Awards, a celebration of the accomplishments of all student-athletes, coaches and administrators, which has grown into the most anticipated night of the year for student-athletes.

In 2005, Gross retired the #44 in football, honoring the Syracuse greats who donned the number. The 'Legend of 44' includes 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, who was the first African-American to win the award, as well as legends Jim Brown and Floyd Little. Gross also played a role in the production of the motion picture, "The Express," which tells the story of Davis, and worked to bring the September 2008 movie premiere to Central New York.

Developing the Plan to Lead

Prior to his appointment at Syracuse, Gross served as senior associate athletic director at the University of Southern California. During his 14 years in athletics administration at USC, the Trojans won 16 national and more than 30 Pac-10 championships, fielded 145 Olympians, played in nine bowl games, and finished in the top 10 of the Directors' Cup ranking almost every year. The University's signature program – football – dressed two Heisman Trophy winners and won two national championships.

At USC, he directed coaching searches and contract discussions, served as the department's spokesman, led marketing and corporate sponsorship efforts, negotiated television contracts, developed and contracted football and men's basketball schedules, directed student-athlete academic services, and directly supervised 10 of the University's 19 intercollegiate sports programs, among other responsibilities. In 2001, he led the effort to sign long-time NFL coach Pete Carroll. Gross' searches also produced women's volleyball coach Mick Haley, track & field coach Ron Allice, men's and women's water polo coach Jovan Vavic, and tennis coach Peter Smith, all of whom have won national championships and been named national coach of the year. Gross was named a senior associate athletic director in 2002. In that role, he led USC Athletics' corporate sponsorship program to record revenues and he headed the football marketing effort that broke USC attendance records. Gross also assisted in the biggest building program in the history of USC Athletics, including facilities for track & field, tennis, football, women's soccer, basketball and volleyball.

Gross holds both a master's degree and Ph.D. in educational psychology from USC, as well as a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of California at Davis, where he was a football wide receiver from 1979 to 1981, catching passes from future New York Jets quarterback Ken O'Brien. From 1982 to 1985, he was on the UC Davis football coaching staff; in 1985, the Aggies were the nation's No. 1 Division II team. He also was the assistant men's tennis coach. In 1986 (Citrus Bowl) and 1987 (Rose Bowl), Gross was a graduate assistant at USC, working with quarterbacks and wide receivers. From 1989 to 1991, he worked for the New York Jets as a personnel scout and in the front office. Gross joined the USC athletic administration as an assistant athletic director in 1991.

A native of Los Angeles, Gross and his wife, Lael, Syracuse's assistant athletics director for trademark licensing, reside in Fayetteville with their daughters, Jamie, Jolie, Zoe and Averie.

Running backs Jerome Smith (left) and Prince-Tyson Gulley return to lead the 2013 Orange offense. The pair combined for 2,001 rushing yards last season, averaging 5.2 yards per carry. Smith, a pre-season All-Atlantic Coast Conference honoree, and Gulley, the 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowl Most Valuable Player, will aim to extend Syracuse's streak of consecutive 1,000-yard rushers to six seasons.

The Scott Shafer era officially kicks off in the New York's College Classic at MetLife Stadium in August, however Shafer's presence in the program has been felt since 2009 when he was named defensive coordinator for former head coach Doug Marrone. Shafer was promoted to lead the program in January 2013 after Marrone departed to lead the NFL's Buffalo Bills. Under his direction, Shafer's defenses have taken on his personality, playing tough, hardnosed football with great attitude, effort and enthusiasm. In 2013, look for the entire program to embrace the mission.

QUARTERBACK

The responsibility for finding a replacement for one of the program's all-time best signal callers falls on first-year quarterback coach Tim Lester. Ryan Nassib virtually rewrote the passing chapter of the Syracuse record book in his time with the Orange. He departed the program ranked first in career passing yards (9,190), attempts (1,312) and completions (791), and second in touchdown passes (70). Nassib also quarterbacked SU to two bowl-game triumphs.

Lester heads to camp with six candidates. The most experienced contender is senior Charley Loeb. The lefthander is one of nine three-time letter winners on the roster. Sophomore Terrel Hunt claimed the top spot on the pre-camp depth chart after an impressive spring with the Orange. Junior John Kinder was also in the heat of the battle during spring workouts.

Of three newcomers on the roster, senior Drew Allen may attract the most intrigue. A PrepStar All-American, Allen was a backup quarterback at Oklahoma for three seasons. Allen transferred to Syracuse for his final year of eligibility. Freshman Mitch Kimble was an all-state selection at Jersey Community HS (Ill.) and fellow rookie Austin Wilson from East Pennsboro HS (Pa.) earned all-conference and all-county honors as a junior and senior.

2013 Quarterbacks

8	Drew Allen (Sr., 6-5, 226)
17	Charley Loeb (Sr., 6-4, 219)
14	John Kinder (Jr., 6-2, 187)
6	Terrel Hunt (So., 6-3, 219)
3	Mitch Kimble (Fr., 6-3, 195)
5	Austin Wilson (Fr., 6-3, 195)

RUNNING BACKS

First-year running backs coach DeAndre Smith stepped into a stable full of running backs that would make anyone envious. Although the Ryan Nassib-led Syracuse passing attack has attracted most of the attention in recent seasons, the Orange offensive success has been a product of an explosive ground game to go along with the quick-strike capabilities of the air schemes.

Syracuse has had a 1,000-yard rusher in each of the past five seasons. Jerome Smith kept the streak alive last season by pounding his way to 1,171 yards. He had 152 yards on 29 carries in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Prince-Tyson Gulley gave SU a perfect change-of-pace from Smith. He dodged and darted for 617 yards and a squad-best seven rushing touchdowns. Gulley had three touchdowns and 213 yards rushing in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

Senior Steve Rene, who has contributed as a special-teams return man, and Greg Tobias add depth.

The running back arsenal does not end there. Redshirt freshmen George Morris II and Devante McFarlane both impressed the staff during spring-ball workouts. Ashton Broyld oozes star-like capabilities, thanks in part to his versatility which makes him a threat at running back, wide receiver and quarterback, the latter his high school position.

2013 Running Backs

23	Prince-Tyson Gulley (Sr., 5-10, 190)
30	Steve Rene (Sr., 5-7, 187)
20	Greg Tobias (Sr., 5-10, 175)
45	Jerome Smith (Jr., 6-0, 226)

27	George Morris (RF, 6-0, 203)
29	Devante McFarlane (RF, 6-0, 201)

FULLBACK

While fullback may not be the most glamorous of positions, it remains a key piece in the playbook new offensive coordinator George McDonald is implementing. Senior Clay Cleveland started the two times SU opened in a formation with a fullback last fall and played in seven games in all. Adonis Ameen-Moore, a junior, played a productive part in short-yardage situations in 2012. He carried the ball 30 times for 108 yards and five touchdowns. Junior Travon Burke started his Syracuse tenure as a linebacker but was switched to fullback in 2011.

2013 Fullbacks

31	Clay Cleveland (Sr., 6-1, 230)
34	Adonis Ameen-Moore (Jr., 5-11, 241)
32	Travon Burke (Jr., 6-1, 245)

WIDE RECEIVER

Coach Rob Moore is one of the links between the 2012 and 2013 coaching staffs and he has a number of slots to fill in his wide receiver unit prior to the upcoming season opener. Gone from the lineup are first-team All- performer Alec Lemon and Marcus Sales. The duo combined for 136 catches, 1,952 yards and 15 touchdowns last fall. In comparison, the returning wide receivers accumulated 60 receptions.

The most experienced of the group is junior Jarrod West, who hauled in 43 passes, including two for touchdowns, in 2012. Senior Christopher Clark (11 receptions, 2 TDs) and speedy junior Jeremiah Kobena (6 receptions, 2 TDs) have flashed big-play capabilities when given the opportunity. Senior Adrian Flemming also figures to be in the mix for a starting job.

The junior class includes Quinta Funderburk, who sat out last year after transferring from Arkansas. Macauley Hill and Franklin Santos are both entering their third year with the Orange.

Sophomore Keenan Hale was an all-state pick in Georgia before enrolling. Alvin Cornelius III, the 2011 NYSHSFCA Class AA Player of the Year, redshirted last year, as did 2011 Maryland All-State selection Ben Lewis.

Three freshmen will be in preseason camp – Sean Avant from Miramar High School (Fla.), Brisly Estime from Atlantic Community High School (Fla.), and Riverview Gardens High School product Corey Winfield.

2013 SEASON PREVIEW

Beckett Wales returns to lead the tight end unit. In 2012 he had 35 receptions, which ranks second on the single-season list for catches by a tight end.

A candidate for the 2013 Rimington Award, center Macky MacPherson is the anchor for the Orange offensive line.

A two-year starter, defensive tackle Jay Bromley (96) will lead the Orange defense in 2013.

TIGHT END

Syracuse's tight ends have played prominent roles in the program's success over the last few years. Nick Provo (2008-11) established the school record for season and career receptions by a tight end and his primary replacement, Becket Wales, is now moving up those lists. Wales, a senior, had 35 receptions a season ago, a total only surpassed by Provo.

Redshirt freshman Josh Parris and sophomore Jacob Green each have a year of practice under their belts. The appearance of freshmen PJ Batten and Tyler Provo in training camp is highly anticipated. Batten hails from Dade Christian High in Miami, while Provo is the younger brother of Nick. Each played in Florida state high school championship games.

2013 Tight Ends

85	Beckett Wales (Sr., 6-3, 255)
89	Josh Parris (RF, 6-2, 255)
42	Jacob Green (So., 6-1, 245)
86	PJ Batten (Fr., 6-2, 225)
80	Tyler Provo (Fr., 6-3, 235)

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Perles, a former assistant at Michigan State and most recently with the Kansas City Chiefs, takes over the task of putting together the Orange offensive line. On his priority list is replacing two departed starters – tackle Justin Pugh, who was drafted in the first round of the NFL draft by the New York Giants, and guard Zach Chibane, who signed as a free agent with the Buffalo Bills.

The anchor of the line – senior center Macky MacPherson – has two seasons of first-string status under his belt. MacPherson, the grandson of legendary SU coach Dick MacPherson, is a Rimington Award candidate, which is presented to the nation's best center. He has played in all 37 games in his career, including the last 25 as a starter.

The coaching staff has groomed redshirt freshman Jason Emerich to back up MacPherson at center. Sophomore Seamus Shanley will compete at the center spot, as well.

Pugh and Chibane held up the left side of the line for most of 2012. In their absence, Perles has moved Sean Hickey from his starting right tackle spot to the left. Hickey, a junior, missed the 2010 and 2011 seasons due to injuries but joined the first string last fall. He will be backed up by redshirt freshman Kyle Knapp. Like Hickey, sophomore guard Rob Trudo is jumping from right to left. He took over a starting spot in the 2012 Pittsburgh game and did not give it up the rest of the way. Redshirt freshman Omari Palmer and junior Jesse Wolf-Gould round out the left guard candidates.

Baldwinsville native Nick Robinson, a sophomore, is the front runner at right guard. He will be pressed by sophomore John Miller, who comes to Syracuse after earning second team all-conference recognition at Los Angeles Harbor College.

Former starting guard Ivan Foy has made the move to right tackle. He began the 2012 campaign as a first-stringer. Senior Daniel Anyaegbunam and freshman Jon Burton are penciled in at right tackle, as well.

Rounding out the offensive line candidates for the Orange are sophomore Michael Lasker, and freshmen Alex Hayes, Jamar McGloster and Kendall Moore.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Syracuse's defense has benefitted from disrupting linemen the last few seasons. Two years ago it was tall defensive end Chandler Jones, who now starts for the New England Patriots. Last year Brandon Sharpe created havoc in opponents' backfields to the tune of 15 tackles for loss, including seven quarterback sacks.

In 2013, defensive line coach Tim Daoust can count on a consistent contribution from senior defensive tackle Jay Bromley, who has been a starter the past two seasons. Sophomore John Raymon, who transferred from Iowa a year ago, has switched from end to tackle to support Bromley, along with two redshirt freshmen – Marcus Coleman and Josh Manley.

At nose tackle, junior Eric Crume is expected to replace Deon Goggins, with competition coming from senior Zian Jones and sophomore Ryan Sloan.

Junior Robert Welsh has logged field team in 23 games over the past two years and should take over at one defensive end post. Sophomore Ron Thompson made the offseason switch from tight end to defensive end. Two transfers – Pasadena City Community College product Tyler Marona and junior Trevon Trejo, a transfer from Golden West College (Ca.) -- are quality reserves. Junior Kennedy Kodua made the roster as a walk-on prior to 2013 spring practice.

Junior Micah Robinson, who started against Stony Brook in 2012, has emerged at the other defensive end slot. He will be pushed by junior Lucas Albrecht and freshman Isiah Johnson from Eastern Christian Academy (Md.).

Senior Marquis Spruill is the leader of the linebacking corps directed by Clark Lea.

LINEBACKERS

Linebackers coach Clark Lea takes over a unit that was an area of strength for Syracuse's 2012. Spring ball was used on a minor reconstruction project – starting middle linebacker Siriki Diabate, who finished second on the team in tackles, had completed his eligibility, creating an opening.

Senior Marquis Spruill, who started 12 games and made 64 tackles on the outside last fall, is the likely candidate to move into the middle. Junior Dyshawn Davis emerged as a big-play defender on the outside, accumulating 14 tackles for losses, hauling in an interception and recovering two fumbles, one of which he returned for a touchdown. Junior Cameron Lynch, who earned two starts a year ago, is ready to step forward as a first-stringer.

Senior Lewellyn Coker, who has played in all 38 games during his three seasons, should see plenty of field time again. Senior Zachary McCarrell, sophomore Hernz Laguerre and freshman Marquez Hodge from Miami Central High School are also in competition at the spot behind Lynch.

Junior Luke Arciniega enrolled at Syracuse in January 2013 after transferring from Sierra College (Calif.). He's lined up at middle linebacker behind Spruill, along with senior Femi Aliyu and redshirt freshman James Washington.

Backing up Davis are sophomore Oliver Vigille and junior Josh Kirkland, a transfer from Butler Community College (Kan.) who played in the 2012 NJCCA National Championship game. Feshman Alryk Perry from Glenwood School (Ala.) rounds out the linebacker group.

Seniors Ri'Shard Anderson (above) and Keon Lyn have anchored the corner positions for the Orange for the past two seasons.

SECONDARY

Fred Reed is the new defensive backs coach for the Orange. He joins the staff after working for Frank Solich at Ohio.

While the SU secondary only loses one starter, the hole is a large one to fill. Shamarko Thomas, the club's top tackler in 2012, leaves a void at strong safety. The rest of the defensive backs who saw action last fall are back in the fold.

Senior cornerback Keon Lyn, who was with the first unit for 10 contests last year, is slated at the starter with sophomore Julian Whigham behind him. Ri'Shard Anderson started all 13 games at the other cornerback slot and returns for his senior season. Junior Brandon Reddish , who started the first three games at one cornerback spot and played in 12 games, will push Anderson. Senior special-teams expert Joe Nassib, sophomores Jaston George and Eric Jackson, and freshman Chauncey Scissum, a first-team all-state performer from Rush-Henrietta High School, are other cornerback candidates.

Senior Jeremi Wilkes ranked fifth on last year's squad in tackles. He has played in all 35 games of his career and is back at free safety with sophomore Wayne Morgan behind him. Junior Darius Kelly, a transfer from Pima Community College (Ariz.) will battle for time. Sophomore Durell Eskridge looks like the favorite at strong safety. He'll be pushed by junior Ritchy Desir.

Placekicker Ross Krautman has established himself on multiple Orange career record lists, incuding scoring, field goals made and field goal percentage, and PATs made.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Ross Krautman has manned the place-kicking post in each of his previous three seasons with the Orange. He enters his senior season ranked fifth in career scoring (250 points), fourth in career field goals (48) and fourth in career extra points (106). Krautman owns the second-best field-goal percentage in program history (.787).

Sophomore Ryan Norton won the kickoff job last year. He also serves as Krautman's understudy.

Junior Jonathan Fisher handled the majority of the punting duties for the second straight season. He averaged 38.4 yards-per-kick and placed 18 inside the 20-yard line. Sophomore Riley Dixon returns as the primary backup. Dixon can also handle kickoffs.

Junior Sam Rodgers has two years under his belt as the Syracuse long snapper. He added the short snaps to his job description last fall. Senior Eric Morris has experience at the position and sophomore Keith Mitsuuchi enrolled at Syracuse in January 2013.

Network programming is produced and distributed by IMG College of Winston-Salem, N.C.

Each game production begins three hours before kickoff with interactive and informative shows, including a live presentation from the University Sheraton and the SU quad prior to Orange home games.

This list of affiliates carrying SU football on the Syracuse IMG Sports Network is as of June 24, 2013. It is subject to change.

GAME #1

Syracuse	41
vs. Northwestern	42

September 1 at the Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

After scoring 28 unanswered points to take a 41-35 lead, SU's bid for a comeback win was thwarted when Northwestern scored a touchdown with 44 seconds left to win, 42-41. Orange quarterback Ryan Nassib set SU single-game records for passing yards (482), completions (45), attempts (66) and total offense (512 yards). He also threw four touchdown passes. Nassib's totals also ranked highly in the BIG EAST record book. His 45 completions and 65 attempts tied Brian Brohm's (Louisville) records.

On the very first SU offensive play of the season, Nassib's 17- yard pass to Beckett Wales put the Orange within 13 yards of the end zone, and kicker Ross Krautman tallied SU's first points of the year with a 22-yard field goal to give SU a 3-0 lead a little more than five minutes into the game.

On its next offensive possession, SU went on a nine-play, 61-yard drive, capped by Krautman's 33-yard field goal with 3:57 left to play in the first to extend the SU lead to 6-0.

Northwestern got on the board when Venric Mark returned Jonathan Fisher's 58-yard punt 82 yards for a touchdown, making the score 7-6 with 23 seconds left in the first quarter.

The Orange reclaimed the lead,13-7, early in the second quarter on a 14-yard touchdown run by Prince-Tyson Gulley, but another Mark touchdown, this one on a 21-yard pass from quarterback Kain Colter, put the visitors on top, 14-13. A 14-yard pass from Colter to Christian Jones a little more than three minutes later extended the margin to 21-13.

The Wildcats added two more scores in the third quarter, including a one-yard touchdown run by Colter at the 7:34 mark of the period, to take its largest lead of the game, 35-13.

That's when the Orange comeback began.

Nassib marched Syracuse 77 yards in 14 plays and connected with Marcus Sales on a seven-yard touchdown to cap the drive, closing the gap to 35-20. Then, as time expired in the third quarter, Nassib hit Jeremiah Kobena for a 50-yard touchdown that made the score 35-27. The touchdown pass was Nassib's 30th completion of the game, breaking the previous Syracuse record of 29 completions he shared with Marvin Graves and Andrew Robinson.

The Orange rally continued at the start of the fourth quarter after the defense stopped Northwestern to regain possession with 10:40 left in the game. Nassib led SU 86 yards in 11 plays and found Kobena again in the end zone to cut the lead to two, 35-33, with 6:41 remaining in regulation. SU went for the two-point conversion, but the play was broken up by the NU defense.

On the Wildcats' ensuing possession, the SU defense held and the Orange took over on its 28-yard line. Facing a 3rd-and-8, Nassib completed a 41-yard pass to wide receiver Sales to put SU in scoring position. Three plays later, Nassib threw a 20-yard TD pass to Christopher Clark with 2:40 left to put the Orange ahead, 39-35. SU went for the two-point conversion and NU was called for pass interference. On the Orange's second attempt, Gulley burst through the Wildcats' defense and into the end zone to claim a 41-35 lead for the hosts.

With Colter out of the game due to injury, Northwestern called on Trevor Siemian to lead its final drive. After taking a sack on first down, Siemian completed three straight passes, including a 25 yarder to Demetrius Fields, to move the ball to the SU 34. The Orange defense stiffened after that, forcing a 3rd-and-15 from the 27-yard line. Siemian rushed for nine yards on the play, but an Orange personal foul gave Northwestern new life and an automatic first down at the nine-yard line. Siemian took advantage, connecting with Fields on the next play for the game-winning touchdown with 44 seconds remaining.

GAME #2

Syracuse	29
vs. #2/2 USC	42

September 8 at MetLife Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J.

The Orange played with No. 2 USC for three quarters before eventually losing to the Trojans, 42-29, in the inaugural New York's College Classic. SU quarterback Ryan Nassib turned in another impressive performance, completing 30 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for another score. Nassib is now the Orange's career leader with 572 completions, and he ranks second on the school's all-time list with 50 passing touchdowns.

Nassib's performance helped keep SU within striking distance of the Trojans until the final period. The score was 21-16 USC heading into the fourth quarter before two Trojan touchdowns in the opening five minutes of the last frame broke the game open.

USC quarterback Matt Barkley threw for 187 yards and tied his own school record with six touchdown passes. He was 23-for-30 and was also intercepted once.

The Trojans scored their first touchdown after a four-play, 55-yard drive that was capped off by a 13-yard touchdown pass from Barkley to Marqise Lee with 12:15 left in the second quarter. Later in the period, Barkley threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Robert Woods to extend the Trojan lead to 14-0 with 1:15 left.

SU kicker Ross Krautman's 37-yard field goal as time expired in the first half pulled the Orange within14-3 at the break.

A storm that rolled through the area delayed the start of the second half 70 minutes. After the delay, USC scored on its first offensive possession as Barkley connected with Woods again for a four-yard TD to extend the lead to 21-3 at the 10:24 mark of the third.

On the ensuing SU possession, a 31-yard pass from Nassib to Jarrod West brought the Orange into the red zone, and Nassib capped the drive with a three-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Sales to make the score 21-10.

Safety Shamarko Thomas set up SU's next scoring drive. The senior intercepted one of Barkley's passes at the 50-yard line and Nassib drove the offense down the field in six plays, capped by Prince-Tyson Gulley's eight-yard touchdown run. The Orange went for two, but missed and score stayed 21-16.

In the fourth quarter, a 22-yard strike from Barkley to Xavier Grimble, and a four-yard touchdown from Barkley to Lee pushed USC advantage to 35-16.

Down 19, the Orange clawed to within 35-22 as Nassib connected with Sales again, this time on a 17-yard scoring pass with 7:36 left in the contest. That was as close as SU got. The two sides traded touchdowns late in regulation to produce the 42-29 final.

Sales paced the Orange with eight catches for 104 yards and two touchdowns. It was his third straight 100-yard game dating back to the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl. West added a career-high six receptions for 94 yards.

Defensive back Ri'Shard Anderson paced Syracuse with a career-high nine tackles.

GAME #11

Syracuse	31
at Missouri	27

November 17 at Farout Field/Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

Syracuse pulled off another thrilling comeback, rallying from a 17-3 deficit to defeat Missouri in its non-conference finale, 31-27 in front of 63,045 fans. Alec Lemon capped a 21-point fourth quarter for the Orange by catching a 17-yard touchdown from quarterback Ryan Nassib with 20 seconds to play to win it.

With the victory, SU became bowl eligible for the second time in three seasons. The loss for Missouri ended its 18-game home nonconference winning streak that dated back to 2005.

Lemon finished with 12 catches for 244 yards and two touchdowns to record his fifth game of at least 100 receiving yards this year. His performance was five yards short of the SU single-game record of 249 yards established by Scott Schwedes in 1985. He made four receptions and accounted for all 81 yards on SU's game-winning drive, a march that started at the Orange 19-yard line after a 46-yard field goal by Andrew Baggett put the Tigers in front, 27-24, with 1:52 to play.

Working with only one timeout, Nassib quickly completed two passes to Lemon to move the ball to the Missouri 36. After three straight incompletions, and facing a 4th-and-10, Nassib hit Lemon for 19 more yards and a first down. On the next play, Nassib delivered another strike to Lemon who sprinted into the end zone.

Keon Lyn notched an interception on the Tiger's last drive, sealing the Orange victory.

Nassib was 26-of-40 through the air for 385 yards to raise his career total to 8,845 yards, supplanting Marvin Graves (8,466 yards) as the Orange's all-time leading passer. It was Nassib's seventh career 300-yard passing game, and his sixth of the season. He also set the Orange season record for touchdown passes (23) with his two TD tosses to Lemon. Nassib now ranks third on the BIG EAST career list for the most passing touchdowns with 67.

The Orange defense recorded four sacks and 10 tackles for a loss in the contest. Jay Bromley accounted for two sacks, while Marquis Spruill had one. Brandon Sharpe and Micah Robinson combined for the other. Cameron Lynch led SU with a career-high nine tackles.

James Franklin connected with Dorial Green-Beckham for a 70-yard touchdown less than two minutes into the game. After a 44-yard field goal by Ross Krautman pulled SU to within 7-3, Franklin found Jimmie Hunt for a 30-yard score with 4:48 left in the opening period.

The Tigers added to their advantage in the second quarter as Baggett capped off a 10-play, 67-yard drive with a 20-yard field goal to give the Tigers a 17-3 margin. On the ensuing drive, the Orange responded with its first touchdown of the game as Prince-Tyson Gulley took it in from a yard out. Krautman added the extra point to make it 17-10 Missouri at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Nassib hooked up with Lemon for a 13-yard touchdown pass 46 seconds into the fourth to tie the game, 17-17. A Kendial Lawrence three-yard touchdown run for the Tigers was anwered with an eight-yard TD burst by Jerome Smith and the two sides were knotted again, this time at 24-24 with 5:33 remaining.

The Tigers advanced down to the SU 25-yard line where it faced a 3rd-and-1. Stopped by Siriki Diabate, the Tigers settled for a go-ahead field goal.

It was then that Nassib drove the Orange down the field for the winning points.

Syracuse topped 500 yards of total offense for the sixth time this season.

November 23 at Lincoln Financial • Philadelphia, Pa.

Syracuse rallied from a 20-17 third-quarter deficit with 21 unanswered points and closed its regular season by winning at Temple, 38-20. Cornerback Keon Lyn sealed the triumph with a 31-yard interception return for a score in the game's final minutes. He added a second interception on Temple's final possession.

Syracuse, which became bowl eligible by defeating Missouri last Saturday, closed out the regular campaign with three straight wins and victories in five of its last six outings. The Orange also won its final BIG EAST Conference game – Syracuse will compete in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) in 2013.

The Orange trailed 20-17 after a Temple touchdown with 8:53 remaining in the third quarter. On the ensuing possession, Syracuse engineered a 12-play, 75-yard scoring drive that recaptured the lead for good. The march included 10 running plays and was finished off by Adonis Ameen-Moore's plunge from the one-yard line. Ross Krautman's extra point made it 24-20 Syracuse.

After forcing Temple to punt, Syracuse drove 75 yards again, this time on 11 plays, and Prince Tyson-Gulley ran the final three yards for a touchdown. The PAT put SU ahead, 31-20. Lyn's pick-six closed out the scoring.

The Owls opened the game with a 47-yard field goal by Brandon McManus that capped Temple's first possession. Following a fumble by wide receiver Marcus Sales, Temple marched 74 yards in 11 plays and quarterback Juice Granger connected with wideout John Christopher on a 12-yard touchdown pass with seven seconds remaining in the opening period. A McManus extra point extended the lead to 10-0.

After the Temple touchdown, Ryan Nassib guided Syracuse 77 yards in seven plays. He found Sales in the end zone and Krautman's extra point pulled the Orange within three, 10-7. The SU defense forced a Temple punt and Nassib had the offense racing to paydirt again. Ameen-Moore's career-long, 18-yard run and Krautman's PAT put Syracuse up 14-10 with 9:11 left in the second period.

The Owls reqrouped and manuvered into a first-and-goal at the Syracuse five. The Orange defenders answered the challenge and held Temple to another McManus field goal, this time from 22 yards.

Syracuse went three-and-out on its next possession, but Jonathan Fisher's punt was mishandled by Montel Harris and Dan Vaughan recovered at the Temple 47. Krautman's 26-yard three-pointer closed out the first-half scoring, and Syracuse led at the break, 17-13.

Syracuse gained 260 yards on the ground and 475 yards overall. Jerome Smith finished with 96 yards on 20 carries, Gulley had 83 yards on 13 carries and Ameen-Moore posted career bests with 10 attempts, 57 yards and two touchdowns.

GAME #13

Syracuse	38
vs. West Virginia	14

New Era Pinstripe Bowl • December 29 at Yankee Stadium • Bronx, N.Y.

Syracuse won its second New Era Pinstripe Bowl in three years, beating West Virginia, 38-14, in a snowy game at Yankee Stadium. Prince-Tyson Gulley recorded a career-high 213 yards on 26 carries, caught five passes for 56 yards and scored three touchdowns en route to earning the Pinstripe Bowl MVP award. SU finished the 2012 season with six wins in its last seven games and an 8-5 record.

The Orange used a strong third quarter to take control of the game, scoring 23 of its 38 points. It was the most points SU scored in a quarter all season.

On the first drive of the game, West Virginia's offense stalled at its own 45 yards line, but a roughing the kicker penalty against SU gave WVU the ball back. The Mountaineers put together an 11-play, 51-yard drive that set up Tyler Bitancurt for a 36-yard field goal attempt. Orange defensive tackle Jay Bromley blocked Bitancurt's attempt, preserving the 0-0 score and giving SU its first offensive possession of the game. The last time Syracuse blocked a kick was when Eric Crume batted down a PAT against Louisville this season.

Syracuse scored first on a 25-yard Ross Krautman field goal with 5:21 left in the opening quarter and never trailed in the game.

In the second quarter, WVU stopped the SU offense on the goal line, but the Orange defense came up big. Linebackers Lynch and Diabate sacked Smith in the end zone, resulting in a safety for SU at 7:59 in the second quarter, to give SU a 5-0 lead. The last time the Orange scored a safety was against Cincinnati in 2004 when SU blocked a punt.

Following the safety, the Orange regained offensive possession. A 33-yard touchdown run up the middle by Gulley capped off a six-play, 65-yard drive. Krautman's kick was good and SU held a 12-0 advantage with 6:07 left in the first half Syracuse opened up the second half with a 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive in which Ryan Nassib found Beckett Wales in the end zone on a 10-yard touchdown throw. It put the Orange ahead 19-7 at 10:43 in the third quarter.

Brandon Sharpe sacked West Virginia's Geno Smith, forcing a fumble. Dyshawn Davis scooped up the loose ball and set the Orange up on SU's 33-yard line. On the ensuing play, Nassib handed the ball off to Gulley who took off down the sideline, completing a 67-yard touchdown run. His second touchdown run of the night put the Orange up, 26-7, after Ross Krautman completed the kick at 7:05 in the third quarter.

About a minute later, WVU scored a touchdown of its own when Smith connected with Bailey for a 29-yard touchdown pass during a 4-play, 63-yard scoring drive.

Nassib answered WVU's touchdown when he completed a nine-yard touchdown pass to Gulley and the Orange were up, 35-14.

It was time for the Orange defense to put some points on the board again. Smith was called for intentional grounding in the end zone and SU earned a safety for the second time this game and extended its lead to 35-14.

Krautman converted his second field goal of the night from 36 yards out. SU held on to a 38-14 lead to win its second Pinstripe Bowl victory in three years.

The Mountaineers got on the scoreboard with 3:38 left in the second quarter after Smith found Steadman Bailey for a 32-yard touchdown pass. Bitancurt's kick was good and WVU cut SU's lead to five, 12-7.

ACC INAUGURAL SEASON

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL

123 YEARS OF SYRACUSE FOOTBALL

Archbold Stadium opened in 1907, with a Syracuse victory against Hobart, and was home to the Syracuse University football team prior to the Carrier Dome opening in 1980. Named for John D. Archbold, who was also responsible for funding the neighboring Archbold Gymnasium, it was the third concrete football stadium built in the country.

1889
On Nov. 23 Syracuse travelled to Rochester for its first intercollegiate football game. Wearing pink and blue uniforms, SU lost 36-0 to finish the year 0-1.

1890
Orange was adopted as the school color and Syracuse athletic teams are henceforth known as "Orange" or "Orangemen". SU defeats Rochester 4-0 in the season opener for its first football victory, en route to an 8-3 record. Bobby Winston became the program's first head coach.

1891
Stephen Crane, author of the Civil War classic, "Red Badge of Courage," was a member of the SU squad that finished 4-7.

1892
The only season in SU football history with no wins, when at least two games were played. The Orange went 0-8-1 under coach Jordan C. Wells.

1893
Without a coach, the Orange finished the season with a 4-9-1 record with wins against Syracuse High School, Hamilton, Onondaga Academy and Cazenovia.

1894
In his only season as SU's head coach, George H. Bond led the Orange to a 6-5 record.

1895
The Orange secured its first real home field as SU went from playing in parks throughout the city of Syracuse to playing at The Oval, which was a space located behind the Hall of Languages. The Orange recorded its first victory against rival Colgate, by the score of 4-0.

1896
The Orange played its first opponent from outside of New York State, losing to Williams (Mass.) College, 24-6.

1897
The Colgate "Hoodoo" was born when a newspaper reporter sympathetic to the Red Raiders' cause tackled an SU player who was on his way to scoring the winning touchdown. The game ended in a 6-6 tie.

1898
The Orange posted an 8-2-1 record, outscoring opponents 192-69, under the direction of head coach Frank E. Wade.

1899
SU finished 4-4 in the final year of head coach Frank E. Wade's three-year tenure.

1900
Edwin Sweetland, a Cornell grad, was hired as head football coach and to start the crew program. He later coached against SU as the head coach at Colgate.

1901
The image of success builds for the football program as the Orange finished the season with a 7-1 record, losing one game to Lafayette, 5-0.

1902
A 23-0 shutout of rival Colgate was an important win for the Orange as it cruised to a 6-2-1 season with other big wins against the Onondaga Indians, Amherst and Williams.

1903
The football program gained momentum as its budget increased to $5,500, bringing the overall SU sports budget to $10,400.

1904

The coaches' poll was a service of United Press International from 1950 to 1990. The poll ranked the top 20 teams in the nation until 1990, when it was converted to a top 25 format. From 1991 to 1996, the coaches' poll was run by USA Today/CNN, which formerly had its own writers'/ broadcasters' poll. In 1997, USA Today joined with ESPN to sponsor the coaches poll.

1915
SU's first powerhouse team finished 9-1-2, recording seven shutouts and outscoring the opposition, 331-16. 1920

1921
Gifford Zimmerman became the first SU player to wear the fabled number 44. The number remained in circulation and was used as a recruiting tool until the 2005 season, when it was retired.

1922
The Penn State series started with a scoreless tie in the game played in the Polo Grounds in New York City. Roy Simmons Sr. became the squad's quarterback, marking the beginning of a relationship between the Simmons family and SU athletics that continues today with Roy Simmons III, who is the director of operations for the Orange men's lacrosse program. After his playing career concluded in 1924, Simmons Sr. coached the Orange lacrosse and boxing squads, as well as serving as an assistant football coach. Roy Simmons Jr. was SU's men's lacrosse coach from 1971 through 1998, taking the reins of the program from his father when he retired in 1970.

Ernie Davis: 1961 Heisman Trophy Winner

In 1961, running back Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, given to the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States. Davis edged out Bill Ferguson of Ohio State in what at the time was the closest vote in Heisman history (824 points to 771). Davis thus became the first African-American and the only Syracuse player to win the coveted award. He died of leukemia in 1963, never getting the chance to realize his dream of teaming up with former SU great Jim Brown in the Cleveland Browns' backfield. Davis' trophy is kept on display in the Iocolano-Petty Football Wing.

Wilmeth Sidat-Singh

One of the greatest student-athletes in Syracuse University history, Wilmeth Sidat-Singh '39 was also an individual of extraordinary courage. Sidat-Singh starred for the Orange football and basketball squads, despite being subjected to racial bias. After earning his degree in zoology from SU, Sidat-Singh played professional basketball. The NFL ban on African-American players eliminated pro football as an option.

The University honored the memory of Sidat-Singh by retiring Singh's #19 basketball jersey in 2005.

In 1943, Sidat-Singh passed the entrance exam for the U.S. Army Air Corps and was assigned to the segregated armed forces' only pilots training program for African Americans: the Tuskegee Airmen. Just days after earning his pilot's wings, Sidat-Singh was on a training mission, when the engine of his P-40 failed, forcing him to parachute into Lake Huron. His body was found a week later. First Lieutenant Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, U.S. Army Air Corps, is buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

"Wilmeth Sidat-Singh was a pioneer in everything that he did," said SU Assistant Vice President for Program Development Larry Martin. "He was a remarkable individual, a two-sport star and an outstanding student. Until now, his story has only been known to a few."

An All-New York City basketball player at DeWitt Clinton High School, Sidat-Singh led his Bronx team to the Public School Athletic League (PSAL) city championship in 1933-34. Despite his talent and credentials, Syracuse University was the only school to offer him a scholarship. At SU, the six-foot, 190-pound Sidat-Singh led the Orange to three straight winning seasons.

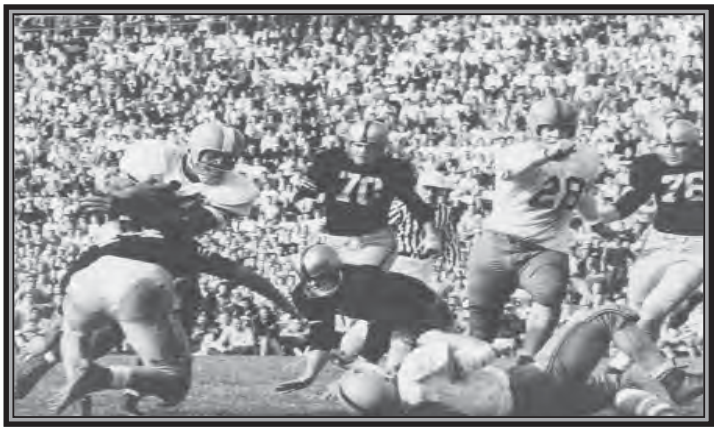
A hero and leader on campus, Sidat-Singh also joined the football team in his sophomore year after assistant coach Roy Simmons Sr. spotted him throwing a 55-yard pass, flat-footed, in an intramural game. He was subject to the indignities plaguing many African-Americans when the Orange traveled to southern states to play. Officials from some of the schools SU traveled to play prevented Sidat-Singh from playing, citing segregation laws. He was banned from the 1937 game at Maryland, which the Orange lost 13-0. One year later, when the teams met in Archbold Stadium, Sidat-Singh helped SU to a 53-0 triumph against the Terrapins. He played halfback in Syracuse's single-wing offense, a position similar to today's quarterback.

In an article for The Syracusan magazine, Don Hallock '38 described the pre-med zoology major as "an omnivorous reader…more interested in a sheepskin than a pigskin."

Sidat-Singh's Syracuse football teammates included Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty '39, the storied head coach at Michigan State, and Marty Glickman '39, the radio voice of New York City sports for half a century. In 1938, legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice came to Syracuse to scout Rose Bowl-bound Cornell. After watching Sidat-Singh engineer a stunning 19-17 upset for Syracuse — including six passes for 150 yards and three touchdowns in the final nine minutes — Rice ranked Sidat-Singh with Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh, the greatest throwing arms of the era.

After graduation, Sidat-Singh played with the Syracuse Reds, one of the few racially integrated professional basketball teams of the barnstorming era. On December 1, 1939, the Reds defeated the Original Celtics 40-37 in Watertown, New York. Sidat-Singh scored 14. A year later, he joined the Harlem Renaissance (or "Rens"), the most famous of the African American barnstorming teams.

Sidat-Singh was born Wilmeth Webb, the son of Elias Webb, a Washington pharmacist, and Pauline Webb. Both of his parents were African Americans. Elias Webb died when Wilmeth was a child. Pauline Webb then married Dr. Samuel Sidat-Singh, then a medical student who had come to the United States to study at Howard University. Dr. Sidat-Singh adopted Wilmeth and moved the family to West 135th Street in Harlem, where he practiced family medicine for many years.



In 1956, Jim Brown set the NCAA record by scoring 43 points in Syracuse's 61-7 victory against Colgate. The Cleveland Browns selected Brown with the sixth pick in the 1957 NFL Draft. The nine-time Pro Bowl selection went on to be what many describe as the best runner to ever play the sport. Brown was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971 and the College Hall of Fame in 1995.

Ossie Solem succeeded Hanson as head coach. He brought with him an assistant by the name of Charles (Bud) Wilkinson, who later established a dynasty at Oklahoma. Wilkinson was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1969.

1938
Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, one of the first African-American quarterbacks to play college football, led SU to a stunning 19-17 comeback win against Cornell. Among Sidat-Singh's teammates were Olympic sprinter and legendary sports announcer Marty Glickman and the great Michigan State coach Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. Sidat-Singh's SU basketball jersey was retired in February, 2005.

A member of Munn's coaching staff, Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty, was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, in 1984. The Orange program enjoyed its 300th overall win, a 28-7 victory against Temple.

With a bowl bid on the line in the regular season finale versus Colgate, Jim Brown scored an NCAA record 43 points in SU's 61-7 victory. The Orange finished the regular season with a 7-1 record, earning an invitation to the Cotton Bowl, where it lost to TCU, 28-27. Brown broke the SU rushing record with 986 yards and earned first team All-America honors. Syracuse enjoyed its finest time on the gridiron, pulverizing its foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games. On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards per game. Three SU student-athletes earned All-America honors, including guard Roger Davis, end Fred Mautino and tackle Robert Yates. Davis was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

Davis was the top pick in the 1962 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins (who traded his rights to Cleveland) and in the 1962 AFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. In 1979 Davis was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.

The Syracuse Eight

In 1970, a group of Syracuse University football team members, known today as the "Syracuse 8", showed extraordinary courage and commitment by calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. As talented scholarship athletes, these men were aware of the potential consequences of their actions. Despite this risk, they took a strong, principled stand. When their calls for action were not honored, they made the difficult decision to leave the team and give up a game they loved and the potential professional success it could bring.

Syracuse University honors the courage and commitment of these men to stand up for the principles of fairness and equality – and today they stand as a beacon for us as we work each day toward a more just university, community and society.

Although mistakenly dubbed the "Syracuse 8" by media reports in 1970, the group included nine individuals. They are Gregory Allen '72, Richard Bulls '73, John Godbolt '73, Dana Harrell '71, G '73, John Lobon '73, Clarence "Bucky" McGill '72, A. Alif Muhammad '71, Duane Walker '80 and Ron Womack '71.

At a special ceremony in October, 2006, Syracuse University Chancellor and President Nancy Cantor awarded these former Orange football players SU's Chancellor's Medal.

"These events celebrate the courage and determination of the 'Syracuse 8' to stand up for their values and principles, even in the face of great personal sacrifice," Cantor said. "These alumni are emblematic of the values we want for our students and for ourselves when we face critical issues of justice and equality. Their courage 36 years ago stands today as a beacon and lesson for all of us as we continue to strive for a more just university, community and society."

The group was also recognized at halftime of the Syracuse football game against Louisville the next day. During the ceremony the group was presented with their SU Letterman's jackets, which they never received after leaving the team.

"This is an awesome recognition of men who stood up for something they truly believed would make the world a better place," said SU Director of Athletics Daryl Gross. "These are men who sacrificed playing the sport they loved to stimulate conversation and action that would create change and needed awareness. This is a celebration of their tremendous courage, commitment and bravery. This is about welcoming back our family and recognizing."

In 2005, several of the players returned to campus for a special panel discussion on the events surrounding the "Syracuse 8." Following that event, alumnus Art Monk '80 led an effort to create a special University committee to consider, and ultimately plan, a formal SU recognition and honoring of the group. Committee members included Monk, Gregory Allen '72, Dave Bing '66, Peter J. Estrada '82, Daryl Gross, Carmen Harlow '78, John L. Johnson, Floyd Little '67, John Lobon '73, Larry Martin, Angela Y. Robinson '78, Diane M. Weathers '71, Barry L. Wells and Roosevelt R. "Rick" Wright Jr. G'93.

Monk, Robinson and Weathers were among those participating in the Chancellor's 2006 medal ceremony.

Ben Schwartzwalder was on the East coaching staff for the Coaches All-American game that included two of his players, Ernie Davis and John Brown. End Walt Sweeney was a first-round selection by the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the 1963 draft.

The Orange finished the season ranked 12th in the coaches poll with an 8-2 record. John Mackey begins his NFL career as a tight end for the Baltimore Colts, where he eventually played in two Super Bowls. In 1992, Mackey was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

The Legend of Archbold Stadium

Upon its completion in 1907, Archbold Stadium was touted as the "Greatest Athletic Arena in America." Designed to resemble the Roman Coliseum and to never become outdated, Archbold Stadium was a trademark of Syracuse Orange football.

"Athletic contests may come and go but the recently completed concrete stadium at Syracuse University will endure forever," stated Dr. Charles Burrows of Technical World Magazine upon viewing Archbold Stadium in 1909.

From 1907 until 1978 the Orange battled for victory inside the walls of Archbold Stadium. It served as the site for many thrilling Orange victories, numerous record-breaking performances – and even a few heart-breaking defeats. But the history of this legendary stadium begins with the vision of generosity of a single man.

John D. Archbold's gift of $600,000 to the University in 1905 made stadium construction a reality. Archbold was the vice president of Standard Oil and the president of SU's Board of Trustees from 1892 until his death in 1916. The stadium bared his name.

Construction of the stadium began in September of 1906 and was completed only ten months later. A natural hollow on the west side of the SU campus provided the perfect site (the Carrier Dome currently occupies this area). Archbold Stadium was situated at a great height, which granted fans of that day a clear view of downtown Syracuse, Onondaga Lake and the beautiful Onondaga Valley.

The stadium's front entrance defined the character of Archbold. Located on the west end, the main entrance consisted of an impressive 40-foot cement arch and two epic towers, which extended high above the archway. On the north side of the stadium, Archbold's bowl-like design enabled fans to arrive in horse-drawn carriages and enter directly at the promenade level.

Upon its completion, critics believed the stadium was impractical and argued that it would never be filled. Originally designed to accommodate a crowd of 20,000, Archbold rarely reached capacity in its initial years. But, twice that number squeezed into the stadium in the 1950s and 1960s. In the end more than six million fans attended the classic stadium to watch football, and past critics were silenced.

In addition to providing the university and its fans with an aesthetically beautiful stadium, Archbold granted the Orange football team a distinct home field advantage. The Orange went 265-112-20 all-time at Archbold. From 1915 to 1927, Syracuse achieved a home record of 61-10-6. Then, during the 11-year stretch from 1958-1968, SU won 47 and lost only six games played at Archbold.

For 71 years Archbold Stadium treated fans to the best that collegiate football had to offer. It began in 1907 with the 'sound drubbing' of Hobart, 28-0. It ended in 1978 with an incredible 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy.

In the final game played at Archbold Stadium, it was a freshman named Joe Morris who stole the show. Facing a tough Navy defense, Morris carried the ball 31 times for 203 yards. Morris helped the Orange upset second-ranked Navy, 20-17. And more importantly, the Orange sent Archbold Stadium out in style.

Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made SU's second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado, 26-22, at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe. It was the fifth-straight bowl win for Syracuse, the second-best streak in the country behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

Another year, another winning season as the Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall record for its seventh straight winning season. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new marks in almost every passing and total offensive category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also left their names in the Syracuse record books.

1994
In keeping with the tone in the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

The Legend of 44

Legends Jim Brown, Floyd Little, Ernie Davis' mother, Marie Fleming, Rob Konrad and Michael Owens were with Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross (right) at the ceremony to retire #44 in 2005.

Number 44 at Syracuse University is one of the most storied numbers ever associated with a college football program. Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — 44.

On November 12, 2005, the number was retired. It is permanently displayed in the Carrier Dome, honoring the legends who have worn it for the Orange.

Since 1954, 11 players have worn the number and three are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — certainly rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

Brown, who played at SU from 1954-56 and led the team to a Cotton Bowl berth, went on to become the NFL's all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame. He led the league in rushing eight times in his nine years. Many still point to him as the greatest running back of all time. Among Brown's accomplishments at Syracuse was setting an NCAA single-game record of 43 points against Colgate in a 61-6 SU win.

Davis played for the Orange from 1959-61. He won the 1961 Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to do so, and was a starter on SU's 1959 national championship team. Davis also signed to play with the Cleveland Browns, but the devastating combination of Davis and Brown in the same backfield never came to pass. Davis died of leukemia in 1963. He was later inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Little was a three-time All-America selection for the Orange. Little played for SU from 1964-66 and led the team to the Sugar Bowl in 1964 and the Gator Bowl in 1966 (teaming in the backfield with Larry Csonka in the latter). Little was the greatest kick returner in Orange history.

In addition to breaking the records of Brown and Davis, he led the nation in all-purpose yardage in 1965, averaging 199 yards per game. Little went on to have a tremendous career with the Denver Broncos, winning back-to-back rushing titles in 1970-71. He, too, is enshrined in the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame.

1995

A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 season and a victory in the Toyota Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb from a crowded young quarterback battle and his immediate chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and kick returners at Syracuse, earning All-America honors as a kick returner. The receiver was the 19th overall player selected in the 1996 NFL Draft, taken by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams was an All-American.

1996

Despite getting off to an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of The BIG EAST Conference title and once again was among the nation's elite. A mid-season eight game win streak earned the Orange another post-season berth. Syracuse beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh-consecutive bowl victory, which was the nation's longest active bowl win streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams earned All-America honors for the second year in a row.

1997

Syracuse won its first-ever outright BIG EAST championship, clinched by a triumphant 33-18 victory at Miami. After opening the season with a 34-0 victory against Wisconsin in the Kickoff Classic, the Orange lost three straight games. SU then defeated Tulane to ignite an eight game winning streak. The Orange played its first overtime game in school history, against North Carolina State in the Dome. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact that the Orange was one of six teams to earn a Bowl Alliance bid. Free safety Donovin Darius was an All-America selection.

1998

SU started the season hosting eventual national champion Tennessee. After a 34-33 loss, the Orange defeated defending national champion Michigan in Ann Arbor the following week, 38-28. From there, SU went 7-3, winning its second outright BIG EAST title, and third in a row, and earned a Bowl Alliance bid, facing Florida in the Orange Bowl. Donovan McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest spot ever for a Syracuse quarterback. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned All-America honors.

1999

Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in the last 13 years. The Orange posted a 7-5 record in the final season of the millennium. The Orange kicked it off with two victories and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. Linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall pick) by the Tennessee Titans in the 2000 NFL Draft. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game. The All-Century roster included: Kevin Abrams (DB, 1994-96), Joe Alexander (OL, 1916-20), Gary Anderson (K, 1978-81), Jim Brown (RB, 1954-56), Gary Bugenhagen (OL, 1965-66), Rob Burnett (DL, 1987-89), Jim Collins (LB, 1976,78-80), Danny Conley (LB, 1990-94), Larry Csonka (FB, 1965-67), Donovin Darius (DB, 1994-97), Roger Davis (OL, 1957-59), Ernie Davis (RB, 1959-61), Joe Ehrmann (DL, 1969-70, 1972), John Flannery (C, 1987-90), Bob Fleck (DL, 1951-53), Paul Frase (DL, 1984-87), Chris Gedney (TE, 1989-92), Marvin Graves (QB, 1990-93), Tim Green (DL, 1982-85), Ted Gregory (DL, 1984-87), Vic Hanson (End, 1924-26), Marvin Harrison (WR, 1992-95), Bill Horr (OL, 1905-08), Kevin Johnson (KR, 1996-98), Daryl Johnston (FB, 1985-88), Floyd Little (RB, 1964-66), John Mackey (TE, 1960-62), Donovan McNabb, (QB, 1995-98), Don McPherson (QB, 1985-87), Kevin Mitchell (LB,1990-93), Art Monk (WR, 1976-79), Rob Moore (WR, 1987-89), Joe Morris (RB, 1978-81), Tommy Myers (DB, 1969-71), Pat O'Neill (P, 1990-93), Markus Paul DB, 1985-88), Jim Ridlon DB, 1954-56), Jim Ringo C, 1950-52), Walt Sweeney OL, 1960-62), Arthur Thom (DL, 1966-68), Stan Walters (OL, 1970-71), Craig Wolfley (OL, 1976-79), Terry Wooden (LB, 1986-89), Bob Yates (OL, 1958-59).

2000

Syracuse ran its streak of winning seasons to 14 with a 6-5 record. Cornerback Will Allen was the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft and is now a member of the New England Patriots.

2001

Syracuse continued its streak of winning seasons with its 15th in a row with a 10-3 record. SU was one of just four schools that could make the claim. SU beat Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl for its 12th bowl win. Consensus All-American Dwight Freeney was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, marking the fifth year in a row that an SU player heard his name in the opening round.

2002

Syracuse played in a school-record two triple overtime games, losing at Auburn and winning in the Carrier Dome against No. 8 Virginia Tech. Quarterback Troy Nunes concluded his SU career ranked in the top five on 10 different school record lists, while linebacker Clifton Smith and punter Mike Shafer etched their names among SU's record-holders, as well. In November, former standout quarterback Donovan McNabb was named to SU's Board of Trustees.

2003

Tailback Walter Reyes established the SU single-season records for rushing touchdowns (21) and total touchdowns (22) and the Syracuse career mark for rushing touchdowns (38) – as a junior. Wide receiver Johnnie Morant, defensive tackle Christian Ferrara, and offensive tackle Kevin Sampson entered the fraternity of Orange players selected in the National Football League Draft. Head coach Paul Pasqualoni moved into the second spot on SU's career wins record list with 101.

The University dedicated the Carrier Dome field 'Ernie Davis Legends Field' in a halftime ceremony on October 10, 2009. The field was named in honor of Davis, who in 1961 was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy. Orange legend Jim Brown, Martin Luther King III, Chuck Davis, the uncle of Ernie Davis, and eight additional members of the Davis family participated in the ceremony. The ceremony also included a video address from United States Vice President Joseph Biden. In addition, Carrier Corporation president Mark Cywilko, Lacrosse Hall of Famer Chief Oren Lyons, former Syracuse football and lacrosse student-athletes, and members of civic organizations from Syracuse and Elmira were on the field for the special moment. The tribute to the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy was inspired by Sam and Carol Nappi.

Running back Walter Reyes concluded his Orange career as SU's second all-time leading rusher with 3,424 yards. Syracuse finished the season as BIG EAST co-champions, the program's fourth league title, after a regular-season ending win at No. 17 Boston College. The Orange lost to Georgia Tech, 51-14, in the Champs Sports Bowl. Offensive Adam Terry was chosen by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2005 National Football League Draft.

2005
First-year Orange head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as the defensive coordinator, made an immediate impact on the Syracuse unit. The pass defense jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings from 2004 (90th to 21st), while the total defense improved from 101st in 2004 to 57th in 2005. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft when he was chosen in the third round by the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. Offensive tackle Quinn Ojinnaka (Atlanta Falcons), defensive end James Wyche (Jacksonville Jaguars) and defensive end Ryan LaCasse (Baltimore Ravens) were selected in the draft.

2006
Quarterback Perry Patterson saved his best for last, setting career-highs in passing yards and touchdown passes. He finished his career ranked among the top five on five different Syracuse career record lists. Senior Brendan Carney led the special teams unit, finishing his career with Syracuse and BIG EAST records in punts and punting yardage. While Patterson and Carney closed out their careers, Delone Carter emerged as a threat during his freshman campaign. Carter rushed for 713 yards, the second-highest total for a freshman in school history. In April, Tanard Jackson and Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007
In his first season as a starter, quarterback Andrew Robinson stamped his name in the SU record books, including on five single-season record lists, while receiver Mike Williams set the SU record with a touchdown catch in nine consecutive games and also tied a school record with 60 receptions. The kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes also had a big year, leading the BIG EAST in average yards per return (24.8 ypr). Sophomore nose tackle Arthur Jones recorded 17.5 tackles for a loss, the third-best single-season total in Syracuse history.

Al Davis, NFL Owner

A 1950 graduate of Syracuse University, Al Davis built a legacy at the helm of the Oakland Raiders. His journey began as an Orange scholar-athlete playing for the junior varsity football, basketball and baseball teams. He tenaciously studied the game of football by attending practices and sitting at the top of Hendricks Hill overlooking Archbold Stadium every Saturday. He tracked each play the Orange ran. Following every game, he and Syracuse head coach Ben Schwartzwalder compared notes.

Davis then transferred his skills to the coaching ranks, starting as an assistant at Adelphi College and then made stops at Army, the Baltimore Colts, The Citadel, Southern California and then the Los Angeles Chargers. He joined the Chargers coaching staff in 1960, a move that launched him into stardom. Three years later, he became the youngest head coach in professional football when he was named head coach and general manager of the Oakland Raiders. Davis was named AFL Coach of the Year in his first season after guiding the Raiders to a 10-4 record. He is credited with turning the Oakland Raiders from a losing squad to one of the most successful franchises in the NFL. Dubbed one of the 'smartest men in professional football,' Davis turned Oakland into one of the winningest teams in pro sports from 1963 until 1991. The Raiders won one AFL championship, three Super Bowls and made 15 playoff appearances during his tenure as head coach. He is currently the only individual in professional football to have served as an assistant coach, head coach, commissioner, general manager and principal owner.

The 1992 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee was honored at Syracuse University in 1985 as an honorary Letterman of Distinction. He passed away in October 2011 at the age of 82.

The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to SU's game against Penn State. Rob Brown, who played Ernie Davis, and Dennis Quaid, who portrayed Ben Schwartzwalder, were the honorary captains for the Orange. On the field, a 24-23 victory at Notre Dame Stadium announced the arrival of running back freshman Antwon Bailey, who ignited the game-winning touchdown drive with three carries for 29 yards. Quarterback Cam Dantley hit Donte Davis for the go-ahead score with 42 seconds remaining. Bailey finished the day with a career-best 126 yards on 16 carries and one touchdown. Nose tackle Arthur Jones had 15 tackles, including four for a loss of yards in the victory. Running back Curtis Brinkley established an SU record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (five) and was one of four SU players to sign with an National Football League team. Fullback Tony Fiammetta (4th round) and guard Ryan Durand (seventh round) were selected in the annual draft, while Brinkley and safety Paul Chiara signed free agent deals.

2009
Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater as the program's 28th head coach after serving as the New Orleans Saints offensive coordinator for three years. The veteran coach brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a standout four-year basketball career at Duke. Marrone brought with him a new system that helped Paulus set records for highest completion percentage in a season (68%) and most completions in a season (193). Freshman Alec Lemon was a favorite Paulus target, catching 29 passes, which is the second-most for a Syracuse freshman. Punter Rob Long, a semifinalist for the 2009 Ray Guy Award, and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Running the ball, Delone Carter moved up the all-time rushing yards list to 19th with 1,871 yards. Defensively, the Orange ranked sixth nationally in sacks, 13th in rush defense and 37th in total defense. Linebacker Doug Hogue set a Syracuse record with 6.5 tackles for loss against Rutgers en route to earning national defensive player of the week honors.

Honoring the All-Time Greats

Orange All-Americans Larry Csonka (above) and John Mackey (right) returned to the Dome in 2007 to celebrate the retirement of their Syracuse jerseys.

Syracuse football standouts Larry Csonka and John Mackey watched their Syracuse jerseys raised to the Carrier Dome rafters in ceremonies during the 2007 season. The jersey retirements honored two of the program's legends.

A two-time All-American, Csonka played for the Orange from 1965 through 1967. As a senior captain he earned consensus All-America honors. He had two 200-yard rushing performances in his career, galloping for 216 yards against West Virginia and 204 yards versus California as a senior. Csonka still ranks third on SU's career rushing record list (2,934 yards) and is second all-time with 15 career 100-yard rushing games.

"Larry Csonka is obviously one of the greatest players of all time," said Syracuse Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross. "His accomplishments at Syracuse were amazing and then he went on to an outstanding career in the National Football League, including playing for the undefeated 1972 Miami Dolphins. We salute Larry for his legacy as we welcome him back to Syracuse."

Mackey, who passed away in July 2011 after a long illness, played for the Orange from 1960 through 1962. He had 27 receptions for 481 yards and scored six touchdowns. As a junior, he caught 15 passes for a then school-record 321 yards. He was a key contributor to Syracuse's 1961 Liberty Bowl triumph with four receptions against Miami.

"John Mackey is arguably the greatest tight end in history and should be recognized as such," Gross said. "His level of play was something that the Syracuse community had the opportunity to enjoy during his career while calling him their own. We applaud his courage and will remember him forever by raising his jersey in the Carrier Dome for permanent display."

In 2013, Orange quarterback legends Don McPherson and Donovan McNabb will join the elite group with the retirement of their jerseys. McPherson will be honored on October 5th when the Orange hosts Clemson and McNabb will return to the Dome for his ceremony on November 2nd when Wake Forest visits the 'Cuse.

In just his second year at the helm at Syracuse, head coach Doug Marrone and his team made incredible strides. Capped by a thrilling 36-34 win against Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl, its first bowl bid in six years, the Orange finished the season with a winning record for the first time since 2001. Four of those wins came in BIG EAST competition, the most since 2004, including victories at West Virginia, bringing the Ben Schwartzwalder Trophy back to Syracuse after a nine-year spell, and at Cincinnati and USF, both BIG EAST firsts. The five wins away from the Carrier Dome were the most since 1992. The Orange was led by a strong pair of veteran linebackers, Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith. The duo was first (114) and second (95) in team tackles, respectively. Led by Hogue and Smith, the Orange defense ranked seventh in total defense at the year's end. Offensively, quarterback Ryan Nassib led the passing attack with 2,334 yards, which ranked fourth all-time at SU for passing yards in a season. Running back Delone Carter led the Syracuse ground game, rushing for 1,233 yards, including 198 in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Place kicker Ross Krautman led the BIG EAST in field goal percentage (.947) and punter Rob Long led the Orange to a top 20 finish in net punting nationally (43.45 yards).

Running back Prince-Tyson Gulley earned the 2012 New Era Pinstripe Bowl Most Valuable Player award after gaining a career-high 213 yards on 26 carries and catching five passes for 56 yards, leading Syracuse to a 38-14 victory against former BIG EAST rival West Virginia. He scored three touchdowns in the Orange's second New Era Pinstripe Bowl Championship in three years.

The Orange jumped out to a 5-2 start, including a 49-23 victory against No. 11/14 West Virginia in the Carrier Dome. Losses in the last five games, however, left Syracuse without a return trip to a bowl game. Defensive end Chandler Jones used a standout season to jump start his NFL career. The younger brother of former SU and current Baltimore Ravens defensive tackle Arthur Jones was the New England Patriots' first pick, and the 21st overall, in the 2012 NFL Draft. Offensive guard Andrew Tiller was chosen in the sixth round, while Antwon Bailey, Michael Hay, Nick Provo, Phillip Thomas, Kevyn Scott and Dorian Graham signed free agent contracts. Quarterback Ryan Nassib, Provo and receiver Alec Lemon turned in record-setting performances. Nassib had the best statistical passing season in school history, establishing team records for completions (259), attempts (415), yards (2,685) and matching the record for passing touchdowns (22). In addition, his 29 completions against Rhode Island tied the Syracuse single-game record. Lemon set the Orange season record for the most receptions (68) and matched the record for receiving yards by a junior (834), while Provo, a Mackey Award semifinalist as one of the nation's best tight ends, finished his career as the most prolific pass-catching tight end in school history, setting SU marks for receptions in a season (51) and career (92) for a player at his position. Jones, Provo, Tiller, Bailey and Justin Pugh earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors.

2012

In its final year in the BIG EAST, Syracuse won a share of the conference championship with a 5-2 league record. Syracuse defeated Big 12 representative and former BIG EAST rival West Virginia, 38-14, at Yankee Stadium for its second New Era Pinstripe Bowl victory in the past three seasons. Quarterback Ryan Nassib surpassed his previous team record for completions (295) and attempts (415). Nassib also set new team records for passing yards (3,757) and passing touchdowns (26). Lemon set the Orange season record for the most receptions (72). Lemon, Pugh and Thomas earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors. Nassib earned Pro Football Weekly All-American honors. Offensive tackle Justin Pugh was drafted in the first round (19th overall selection) by the New York Giants, who also selected Nassib in the fourth round (110th overall selection). Strong safety Shamarko Thomas immediately followed Nassib to the league as the 111th overall pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Deon Goggins, Marcus Sales, Alec Lemon, Zack Chibane, Brandon Sharpe and Lou Alexander all signed free agent contracts.

Orange in the Hall

Syracuse is one of the most represented schools in the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame as one of just 16 Football Bowl Subdivision (Division IA) schools with 18 or more enshrinees in the College Football Hall of Fame. In the Atlantic Coast Conference, Syracuse ranks second with the most inductees. Less than two percent of all collegiate football student-athletes are in the Hall of Fame.

The first Syracuse representatives were coaches Frank 'Buck' O'Neill and Howard Jones, members of the College Football Hall of Fame's first class in 1951. Former standout wide receiver Art Monk joined the Orange contingent in the Hall of Fame in December 2012.

Soladay Award

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange of SU. The SU Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Melvin Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

The Zunic Award

The Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy volunteered to give up their seats in first class and sit at one of the exit doors. Mike and Judy both died in the crash and those in the Zunic's seats survived.

Mike was a four year starter as a linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and Master's ('82) in speech communication.

Norma and William Zunic, the parents of the late Mike Zunic, were the first recipients of the award established in honor of their son.
